

Utility Coordinator

Cary, N.C.

Weston & Sampson is currently seeking a Utility Coordinator with 1 year of experience in our Cary, N.C. office. This position would have knowledge of the entire utility coordination process from design through construction.

What you'll do:

- Identifying potential utility conflicts due to roadway/bridge improvements, resolving those conflicts, commenting on schedule, and summarizing these findings to the client
- Meeting with multiple utilities
- Roadway and bridge replacement projects
- Utility coordination process from design through construction
- Identifying potential utility conflicts due to roadway/bridge improvements and summarizing these findings to client
- Responsible for multiple projects statewide
- Travel required

What you will bring:

- Must have either a construction or utility background.
- Must have good oral, written and organization skills with the ability to multi-task.
- Experience with NCDOT utility coordination projects required.

If interested, please submit your resume through our career portal:

<https://www.westonandsampson.com/join-our-team/>